59 COMMUNITY INFRASTRUCTURE LEVY (CIL)

Revised plans supplied by the Council's Consultants were circulated prior to the day of the meeting.

The Head of Corporate Organisation introduced Paper P67, which provided an update on the CIL development programme and sought approval to launch the formal consultation on the Draft Charging Schedule.

The Spatial Planning Policy Officer then explained the detailed rationale for the proposed approach to the charging schedule and the Regulation 123 infrastructure list and together with the Head of Service responded to Members' questions.

RESOLVED

- (1) That the work carried out to date on the Community Infrastructure Levy (CIL) development programme be noted.
- (2) That the Council response to the summary consultation issues be noted, as summarised in the Table in paragraph 8.8 of Paper P67.
- (3) That the Babergh CIL Draft Charging Schedule consultation documentation (Appendices 2, 3 and 4 to the report) be approved for public consultation.
- (4) That the Head of Economy in consultation with the Chairman of the Strategy Committee be authorised to agree any minor changes to the CIL Draft Charging Schedule consultation documents for Babergh prior to publication for public consultation.
- (5) That, following the public consultation exercise, the CIL Draft Charging Schedule documentation, together with a summary of the comments made upon it, be reported direct to the next appropriate Full Council meeting. Further, that Full Council be asked to approve the formal submission of CIL Draft Charging Schedule for statutory Examination.

The business of the meeting was concluded at 10.30 a.m.
